

Tropical Cyclone Winston - New Zealand Fiji Service

22 February, 2016

Dear Valued Customers,

Further to our earlier messages, we are very relieved to hear that all our team in Fiji are safe and well after the cyclone struck on the weekend. We have been without power and phones for much of the day but our offices and depots are now back in operation although with limited staff on site today.

Please note additional updated vessel details as below:

Capitaine Wallis V052N is currently proceeding to the port of Suva where she is scheduled to commence operations at 10:00hrs Tuesday 23rd February.

Her current schedule is:

SUV – 23-24 February

LTK – 25-26 February

TRG – 01-02 March

AKL – 02-03 March

Capitaine Cook V034N is currently in Auckland and scheduled to sail tonight 19:30hrs. Subject to weather conditions she will proceed to Suva and is currently on schedule for ETA SUV 26 February, and ETA LTK 28 February.

We will update this information as the schedule becomes clearer. Please feel free to contact your local Pacific Direct Line or Transam Agency office if you require any further information.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,
