

Service to Norfolk Island Update

19th of March 2021

Dear Valued Customers,

New Barge Operation from Brisbane to Norfolk Island

To supplement the Southern Tiare service, NPD is arranging a barge operation which will sail out of Brisbane directly to Norfolk Island. This is a new service we will trial with one voyage. If successful, we will assess the possibility of more voyages as we understand the need from the Norfolk Island community.

Bookings will be managed in the same way they currently are in Australia, and all cargo will have to be delivered in Brisbane to our nominated consolidator who will then pack it into containers. Please contact your NPD representative for pricing.

The target cutoff is 13/04 and sailing date 26/04.

Southern Tiare v35 delay

The Southern Tiare voyage v35 will have to be rescheduled as the vessel is shared with Chatham Islands Shipping and their service has been disrupted. Target date for Norfolk sailing is mid-June, and once confirmed we will update the community.

Best regards,
