

Improved service frequency to Wallis & Futuna, Funafuti & Tarawa

08th February 2017

Dear Valued Customers,

We are pleased to announce as part of the improvements to our service to and from the South & Central Pacific in 2017, that the Southern Pearl service between Fiji and Wallis & Futuna, Funafuti & Tarawa will now increase her frequency to every 18 days allowing 20 voyages per year to these markets.

The Marshall Islands will be serviced by a brand new direct South Pacific Service from China which will call Majuro every 28 days via Papua New Guinea, New Caledonia & Fiji. All cargo from Australia & New Zealand will continue to be centralised in Suva for on-carriage to Majuro.

Please find the forward schedule for the Southern Pearl below and the schedule for the South Pacific Service attached.
