

Kota Hakim V428 – Tarawa call cancelled

03rd April 2020

Dear Valued Customers,

Further to our notice on the 25th March regarding the transfer of Tarawa cargo from the Southern Pearl V189 to Kota Hakim V428, we had received the news yesterday morning that despite the scheduled arrival of the Kota Hakim at Tarawa pilot station for 1400hrs, she would have to wait outside under quarantine for 10 days before being cleared for entry. As this vessel also carries vital supplies for other islands on the schedule rotation, it is not feasible nor viable to spend 10 days idle awaiting clearance in Tarawa on this voyage.

As a result, Tarawa cargo on the Kota Hakim V428 is being delivered to Majuro. Capitaine Wallis V348, currently sailing to Kiritimati, will deviate her course and call into Majuro to pick up this cargo and deliver to Tarawa as per the below schedule.

Vessel	Voy	Suva	Xmas	Majuro	Tarawa
Capitaine Wallis	348	Sailed	05-08/04	15-15/04	16-17/04

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,
