

Samoa's, Tonga & Tahiti trade

03rd April 2020

Dear Valued Customers,

The current global Covid-19 situation is also affecting our Pacific Island communities. With cargo volumes impacted, it is important that we review our business continuity program to adapt to the changing circumstances to enable us to offer viable and regular shipping services to and from the Pacific ports.

Southern Lily will be replaced by sister ship Southern Trader on the New Zealand to Samoa's and Tonga trade maintaining the capacity and frequency of this service.
